

VOL. 9. NO. 214.

BRATTLEBORO, VERMONT, TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 8, 1921.

THREE CENTS

TAX REVISION BILL FACES CONFEREES

Passes Senate and May Reach President Late
This Month

WILL PRODUCE ABOUT
$3,250,000,000 CASH

Eventually Will Reduce Taxation About
$750,000,000 a Year — Senate Eliminates
All Provisions for Soldiers'
Bonuses—Page Against It — Dillingham Silent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The tax revision bill now faces its third re-writing this time by the house and senate conferees. The measure finally was passed early today by the senate 38 to 24 at the end of a continuous session lasting nearly 16 hours. It may reach the President for his approval late in the month.

At a rough estimate treasury experts say the bill in its present form would net approximately $3,250,000,000 or $200,000,000 less than the present law and about the same of revenue which treasury officers have said the government must have. Eventually the bill, the experts assert, would reduce the national tax toll about $750,000,000 a year. Three Republicans, La Follette, Moses and Norris, voted against the bill, and one Democrat, Broussard, supported it.

During the day yesterday the senate rejected the two remaining soldier bonus amendments and then proceeded to dispose of the other amendments in rapid succession.

The debate on the Simmons and McKellar amendments proposing to utilize part of the interest on the foreign debt to finance adjusted compensation for the former service men consumed the first five hours of the session.

Both proposals were rejected by decisive votes. The Simmons amendment, 42 to 29, and the McKellar amendment, 44 to 25.

Senator Page voted against the Simmons amendment, but Senator Dillingham did not vote.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 per cent of such gain would be taxable because sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 per cent of such gain would be taxable because sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 per cent of such gain would be taxable because sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 per cent of such gain would be taxable because sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 per cent of such gain would be taxable because sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 per cent of such gain would be taxable because sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

Without a roll call the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, under which the net gain made by a tax payer on the sales of stocks, bonds, and other securities would be taxable.

EXPECT LONG FIGHT IN N. Y. MILK STRIKE

Employers Refuse to Negotiate With Strikers — Plan Increase in Milk
Distribution.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The big milk companies of this city have refused to open negotiations with striking employees and plan to increase the distribution of milk under police protection tomorrow. This action, coupled with a mass vote last night of the strikers not to return to work except under closed shop conditions made it evident today that the strike might be a prolonged one.

Commencing tomorrow 234 milk wagons will be used to sell milk at street corners along Upper Broadway and Lexington avenue, Manhattan, and Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Each wagon will be supplied with a police guard, while squads of motorcycle police will patrol each district in which the hucksters will work.

Health Commissioner Copeland yesterday failed in a new attempt to close the breach between milk distributors and their union employers who struck last week.

The employers stood by their avowed determination to operate in the future on an open shop basis.

Union leaders suggested to Dr. Copeland that he act as arbiter in the dispute between them and the milk conference board, representing the employers, but the board declined to arbitrate.

The distributors' position was set forth in a letter to Dr. Copeland saying they rejected his offer "because we already have agreed to pay, and in fact now are paying the highest wage scale, and therefore this becomes merely an offer to arbitrate upward and obviously is impossible of acceptance."

Dr. Copeland described his appeal as made in the name of the public, its health, and especially 130,000 babies of the city, who were exposed to disease, he declared, by prevailing conditions.

The employers replied they were tired of "union domineering and intended to recapture their business from the hands of labor leaders."

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning employers they would be held accountable for sanitary conditions.

SIX KILLED IN ELECTION FIGHT

Five Other Residents of Troublesome Creek, Kentucky, Wounded

DEMOCRAT NOMINEE
IN LOUISVILLE JAIL

Ten Others Charged With Disorderly
Conduct — Only Virginia Elects Governor Today—New York Women Buy
Milk and Vote on Same Trip.

JACKSON, Ky., Nov. 8.—Six men were killed and five others were wounded in an election fight shortly after the polls opened at the Clayhole voting precinct on Troublesome creek, Breathitt county, about 15 miles from here, today. A special train left here with physicians to attend the wounded.

Candidate For Mayor in Jail.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—W. Overton Harris, Democratic nominee for mayor of Louisville, started election day with a ride from a leading hotel to police headquarters in a patrol wagon, a prisoner. Mr. Harris was charged with disorderly conduct and with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duties. Ten others were arraigned on similar charges growing out of an altercation in a downtown hotel.

Elections in Several States.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—This being an off year in state and national politics, municipal contests featured the annual fall elections being held throughout the country today. Only one state, Virginia, is electing a governor. Several states are electing new legislatures in whole or in part.

Kentucky elects 20 senators and 100 representatives. Maryland elects a new governor and entire house of delegates and 13 of the 27 members of the senate. New Jersey elects a new assembly and six state senators. New York chooses a new assembly, two state senators and a society judge of court of appeals. In addition to voting on seven constitutional amendments, one of the most bitterly opposed being that which gives World War veterans preference in civil service appointments. Mayoralty elections also will be held in more than 40 cities of the state, including New York city.

Women Will Decide New York.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Men and women voters of New York city, 1,233,040 of whom are entitled to cast their ballots, went to the polls today to elect a new city administration, one state senator, 62 assemblymen and several judges and county officers. The polls opened at 6 a. m. and will close at 6 p. m. While there were seven candidates for mayor the choice lies between John F. Hylan, Democratic incumbent, and Henry H. Curran, Republican, running tickets. Observers generally agreed that the women voters held the balance of power and both sides made a strong appeal for the woman vote.

Mr. Curran made his final appeal to the voters last night by wireless, which flashed his words to 15,000 stations in and about New York.

Mayor Hylan was forced to cancel three 11th hour speaking engagements because of a throat affliction.

Other candidates for mayor were Jacob Pankin, Socialist; Jerome T. DeHunt, Farmer-Labor; George K. Hinds, Prohibition; John P. Quinn, Social-Labor; Joseph D. Miller, Single Tax; and Benjamin Gitlow, Workers League (Communist). The latter's name was not on the ballot as he is in Sing Sing.

Early balloting was unusually brisk. Hundreds of housewives lined up at booths with milk pails on their arms, making one trip serve both for the performance of their civic duties and babies' strike-bound breakfast. Several women's organizations sent workers out to care for babies while mothers voted. Others opened nurseries where babies could be checked.

UNION SHOE MEN
CONSIDER WAGE CUT

Regard 20 Per Cent Cut at Lynn Forerunner of Similar Cuts Through Industry.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Representatives of New England shoe workers' union met in conference here today to consider the situation in the industry with respect to wages as developed by the proposal of the Lynn Shoe Manufacturers' association for a reduction of 20 per cent.

It was said that union officials regarded the move in Lynn as merely the forerunner of a movement to similar purpose in other shoe manufacturing centers. In resolutions made public at Lynn recently union officials claiming to represent 50,000 operatives called upon shoe workers to oppose the reduction.

First Baptist Church

Tuesday, 7.30 p. m.—Christian Endeavor meeting.

Thursday, 7.30 p. m.—Choir rehearsal.

Friday, 4 p. m.—Junior Endeavor; 6 p. m.—Buffet supper and mission study classes; 7.30 p. m.—Regular church prayer meeting.

Centre Congregational Church

Wednesday, Nov. 9, 7.30 p. m.—Social gathering for parents of children in the primary and beginners' departments of the Sunday school. An entertainment will be given and any members of the congregation are invited.

Methodist Episcopal Church

Wednesday evening, 7.30—Meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society in the League room.

CREAMERY STARTS IN BELLOWS FALLS

Product Taken by John T. Connor Chain
Stores in Boston—23,000 Pounds
Milk on First Day.

Operations at the Bellows Falls creamery started this week under the management of James F. MacLennan, formerly of the John T. Connor chain stores in Boston. The plant will sell its supply of 23,000 pounds of milk being received the first day, more than double the amount expected.

The milk comes from 130 dairies as far north as Cassette on the Rutland railroad and Windsor on the main line, also from Westmoreland, Walpole, Alstead, Chester, Saxtons River, Grafton and Rockingham. The plant will sell its supply to the John T. Connor chain stores in Boston and the milk will be shipped in bottles. The Connor concern has 216 stores in the chain and is going to put milk into 100 of them. Up to the present time it has been necessary to turn the product into sweet cream because of the fact that the bottles have not yet been received.

It is expected that a larger number of dairies will be sending milk to the plant after January 1, as some of the farmers are under contract to the Brigham company until that date.

WILL ASK POWER CO.
TO PAY FOR BRIDGE

Selectmen Getting Together Bills Covering Entire Cost of New Bridge—
Meeting Last Night.

In the meeting of the selectmen in their rooms last evening the principal business under discussion was the bills in connection with the building of the new bridge crossing the Connecticut river between the railroad yard and Island Park, with a view to asking the Connecticut River Power Co. to pay them. Most of the bills are in hand, but a few are missing. When all are gotten together a demand will be made on the Power Co. to reimburse the town for the entire expense of the bridge.

It is the claim of the selectmen that the Power Co. is wholly responsible for the loss of the bridge which was carried out by ice and high water March 28, 1920, by reason of the erection of the dam at Vernon and the consequent setting back of the water, and that the company should therefore pay the whole bill.

SCOTT FARM APPLES FOR GENERAL FOCH

Box of McIntosh Reds Which Won First Prize at Concord to Be Presented to Noted Frenchman.

A box of McIntosh Red apples which were raised and packed on the Scott farm will be presented to Ferdinand Foch, commander-in-chief of the allied armies in the World War, by the directors of the annual New England Fair Show on his arrival in Boston Monday.

This box of apples won first prize in the class for boxed apples at this year's show at Concord, N. H., and was declared to be the best exhibit in the entire show. At a meeting of the directors Sunday it was voted to present this particular box of fruit to General Foch in behalf of the fruit growers of New England.

Carl Webber, a member of the local post of the American Legion, had charge of the raising of these apples on the Scott farm.

NEW TENANTS ON AMES HILL FARMS

Leased to Holman and Diggins, Practical
Farmers, Especially in Dairying —World War Veterans.

The Ames Hill farms at West Brattleboro have been leased to Messrs. Holman and Diggins, of New Jersey. Both are practical farmers of wide experience, especially in dairy work and the raising of produce, and both are World War veterans. Mr. Holman's recent connection was with one of the largest dairy farms in New Jersey, where a herd of between 700 and 800 cows are kept and the dairy products sold to New York city. Mr. Diggins has farmed in Australia, Dakota and New Jersey. Both are active men and intend soon to have their wives and families with them. They hope to take a large number of horses and cattle to board for the winter.

HARDING'S ADDRESS TO CONFERENCE

Will State America's Desire to Remove Causes of Heavy Armament.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Harding has virtually completed the address to the disarmament conference, the opening of the armament conference. He will state in general the desire of the American government to remove causes of heavy armament and then reduce the armament itself. He will also state in high official circles today that the President in his keynote speech would indicate broadly his attitude toward the negotiations by confining his statement to general principles and by not attempting to present a detailed solution of any individual problem. That would be left to the delegates themselves with the President advising with them only when vital decisions are to be made.

MISS BRENNAN EXONERATED.

Shows No Impropriety At Arbuckle's Fatal Party.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Miss Kate Brennan, a witness for the prosecution in the case of Roscoe Arbuckle charged with manslaughter in connection with Virginia Rappe, has been exonerated of any impropriety by the county grand jury. Miss Brennan was a member of the St. Francis hotel, where Arbuckle, it is charged, injured Miss Rappe fatally.

THE WEATHER.

Partly Cloudy Tonight and Wednesday—
Continued Cold.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The weather forecast: Partly cloudy and continued cold weather tonight and Wednesday. Moderate variable winds becoming northeast and east.

SCIENTIST GIVES PUBLIC LECTURE

Christian Science: the True
Standard of Right, the Speaker's Theme

BLISS KNAPP, C. S. B.,
IN CHURCH EDIFICE

Good Sized Audience Present Last Evening — Lecturer Presented by Mrs. Edwin F. Lindsey, First Reader of Local Church.

Christian Science: The True Standard of Right, was the subject of a lecture by Bliss Knapp, C. S. B., in the Christian Science church last evening. The lecture was heard by a good sized audience and was delivered in an interesting way. The speaker was presented by Mrs. Edwin F. Lindsey, first reader of the Brattleboro Christian Science church, who said:

"The test of all true religion is in what it does, and the thousands who have identified themselves with the cause of Christian Science have received abundant proof that this religion makes for the betterment of every condition. All Christian Scientists have at some time or in some way been healed of something. With that healing there has come into our lives joy, health, love, prosperity; and we are grateful. This meeting tonight is a manifestation of our gratitude. We desire to pass on to our friends and neighbors—to you—a knowledge of this wonderful thing which has brought such a large measure of satisfaction to us. We have with us this evening one well qualified to explain this truth, Bliss Knapp, C. S. B., of Brookline, Mass., member of the board of lecturers of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass."

Following is an abstract of Mr. Knapp's lecture:

Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, has written in her book, "Fundamentals of Christian Science," the answer to the question, "What is the principle of Christian Science?" In these words: "It is God, the Father."

(Continued on Page 8.)

MILK TERRITORY RE-DISTRICTED

Windsor, Windham and Cheshire County
Associations to Be Consolidated
—To Meet Next Monday.

Through a system of re-districting territory of the New England Milk Producers' association, what heretofore has composed county associations in Windsor, Windham and Cheshire counties will now be united into one association to be known as the Windsor-Windham association. The first meeting of that association will be held Monday, Nov. 14, in Union hall in Bellows Falls, and will be addressed by Carl A. Smith, who is in charge of the northern New England milk district.

The new association will include producers from Bellows Falls, Alstead, Cavendish, Chester, Keene, Ludlow, Putney, Rockingham, South Londonderry, Walpole, West Chesterfield, Westmoreland, Weston, and those who naturally would come in with those towns.

Each local association will have one initial vote and one vote additional for each 20 members.

Representatives to the meeting were chosen by the Rockingham, Westmoreland and Putney locals last week and representatives of others will be elected or appointed at their meetings. In the case of the Rockingham local, Hugh O'Brien was elected president, and Frank Weeden secretary and treasurer. At the Westmoreland local meeting W. A. Miller was elected president and R. D. Metcalf secretary and treasurer, and at the Putney meeting F. B. Hannum was elected president and J. J. Knight secretary and treasurer.

BRATTLEBORO'S RED CROSS QUOTA $3,000

Maj. Linn D. Taylor in Charge of Drive to Start Friday—Town to Be Divided Into Districts.

Brattleboro's quota for the coming Red Cross drive is $3,000, and the aim of Maj. Linn D. Taylor, who has charge of the drive for this town, and his assistants is to secure sufficient memberships to yield at least that sum. The drive begins Friday of this week and continues one week.

It is planned to have the town divided into districts and have a captain in charge of each district. Every district will be subdivided so that no worker will have more than 12 to 15 calls to make.

In view of the urgent need for Red Cross work it is not anticipated that there will be any difficulty in securing the required number of memberships to the organization.

FORTY PRESENT FROM HERE.

Brattleboro Church Has Banner Attendance at Bellows Falls.

A unique religio-recreation event was enjoyed yesterday by the Methodist Sunday school workers of Brattleboro, in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half the table space in the form of a motor-trip to Bellows Falls and attendance upon the Sunday school institute which had been arranged by the board of Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four cars of young people left at 10 o'clock and arrived in time for the opening session of the institute, and another carload arrived during the supper hour. Twenty-six Brattleboro delegates were present for supper, taking up nearly half